

Position: Director, Digital Health Technologies

Reports to: Vice-President of Strategy and Operations

Description: Lead the development and implement of digital tools to support clinical and commercial development of the company's therapeutic programs.

Job Responsibilities:

- Maintain competitive intelligence on existing digital health technologies.
- Work closely with clinical and commercial teams to identify needs and opportunities that can be addressed by digital tools.
- Facilitate access to digital tools.
- Supervise the customization or development of digital tools as required.
- Support the deployment and ongoing use of digital tools as needed, including technical and customer support.
- Other duties and responsibilities as required.

Experience and Background:

- Bachelor's Degree with a minimum of 2 years of clinical research using digital health technologies experience, Master's degree preferred.
- Knowledge of GCP and ICH.
- Proven success in developing positive relationships with senior management and being a resource for advice and consultation.
- Experience developing study plans and budgets including risk mitigation strategies.
- Experience in multiple phases of research preferred.
- Effective written and verbal communication skills.
- Very strong computer skills.
- Excellent verbal and written communication skills.
- Experience in a start-up or small company environment preferred.
- Must be pro-active team player, flexible, and open to change.